The Honorable John C. Stetson
Secretary of the Air Force
Washington, D. C. 20330

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I am taking this opportunity to send you a selection of recent documents produced by the Intelligence Community Staff. I believe you will find these interesting from the standpoint of the substantive content, and also for some insight into the diversity and complexity of the Intelligence Community which our Staff helps to coordinate.

We want to be as helpful as we possibly can to you in the fulfillment of your new responsibilities. Please let me know if I can assist in any way.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ STANSFIELD TURNER

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

25X1 FROM : [REDACTED], USN

Deputy to the DCI for the Intelligence CommunitySUBJECT : Dispatch of Intelligence Community
Staff Documents

1. Action Requested: Signature of the letter at Tab A dispatching several IC Staff-produced documents to the new Secretary of the Air Force.

2. Background:

a. Shortly before your arrival I sent packets of several documents which the Intelligence Community Staff had produced to incoming principals of the new administration (as shown at Tab B). The purpose was to provide some insight into the Intelligence Community and its functioning, and to express our interest in providing responsive intelligence support. The documents included were the DCI's Annual Report (Secret-level version), the Key Intelligence Questions, and Perspectives for Planning and Programming.

b. Several key positions in the administration had not yet been filled at the time most of the packets were dispatched. I subsequently sent material to each new incumbent in those positions as he was confirmed and sworn in. This mailing to Mr. Stetson completes the distribution. As you are now on the job, it is appropriate that you sign the letter of transmittal.

3. Recommendation: That you sign the letter at Tab A.

Dear Admiral Turner:

I appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending a copy of the paper on Soviet Economic Problems to my attention. It is interesting and it will be helpful to me.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

John C. Stetson
